

BA - ENGLISH

Semester I/II/III/IV/V/VI	All Subjects / Course	Objective of teaching the subject (Minimum 4)	Outcomes
Semester I & II	Communication Skills in English	1. to help students understand and interpret any text students are reading from different perspectives	This course will improve the Listening, Speaking, Reading, and Writing skills of students that will help them enhance their learning skills and make them better team members either as students, employees or employers.
		2. To arouse interest of learners in listening to and watching good quality audio and visual media
		3. to help students acquire proficiency in the skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing that will help them meet the challenges of the world.
		4. To develop good oral and written skills of communication in the English language.
Semester I & II	English Optional Introduction to Prose and Fiction	1. To develop passion for reading literary works amongst students	Students will develop interest in reading and appreciating prose, fiction and non-fiction.
		2. To make learners at ease in the process of appreciation of literature
		3. To enable learners to understand and analyze selected stories, prose, fiction and non-fiction masterpieces
		4. To imbibe the underlying philosophy and values reflected in literature
		5. To develop sensitivity to nature and understand the relationship between human beings
	English Optional II -- Indian Literature in English	1. To instil interest in the students in Indian Literature in English and translation.	Students will recognise the contribution of Indian Literature in English and in translation to the world.
		2. To understand the position and value of Indian Literature in the world.
	English Optional III -- American Literature	1. To introduce students to the poetry, drama and fiction of Americans	Students will be acquainted with the literary genres of Americans and the diaspora living there. They will be informed of the mentality, lifestyle and culture of the people in America.
		2. To familiarise students to diasporic literature in America.

	English IV -- 16th to 18th Century English Literature	1) to acquaint students to understand the distinctive features of English literature of the 16th, 17th and 18th centuries  2) to help students comprehend how background influences shaped the writer's thinking.  3) To learn to recognize and appreciate the literary masters who dominated the scene.  4) To grasp the different writing styles that each age adopted.	After completion of the course, students are expected to be able to:  1) To understand the distinctive features of English literature of the 16th, 17th and 18th centuries  2) To comprehend how background influences shaped the writer's thinking.  3) To recognize and appreciate the literary masters who dominated the scene.  4) To grasp the different writing styles that each age adopted.
	English V - Literary Criticism	1) to introduce students to use some important critical terms  2) to help them become aware of the nature and function of literature and criticism  3) to impart the technique of close reading of literary texts  4) to acquaint them to various literary theories and critical approaches  5) to be familiar with the tenets of practical criticism	After completion of the course, students are expected to be able to:  1) use some important critical terms  2) become aware the nature and function of literature and criticism  3) impart the technique of close reading of literary texts  4) understand the various literary theories and critical approaches  5) be familiar with the tenets of practical criticism
	English VI - Grammar &amp; The Art of Writing	1. to introduce students to a basic understanding of phonetics, morphology and word and sentence transformation  2. to develop adequate knowledge of the rules of grammar, grammatical analysis  3. to guide students to identify, analyse different types of writing 4. Write effectively in various domains.	After the completion of the course, students are expected to be able to:  1. gain a basic understanding of phonetics, morphology and word transformation  2. Have adequate knowledge of the rules of grammar, grammatical analysis  3. to identify, analyse different types of writing  4. Write effectively in various domains.