Brief Report

Celebration of Birth Anniversary of Taramai Vartak

21st August is celebrated Birth Anniversary of Taramai Vartak every year. She was a former president of the institution. To understand the contribution made by her to the development of the institution is one of the objectives behind the organisation of the programme. The speaker of the programme remembered her contribution as an educationalist, administrator and true human being. He praised her for her selfless dedication to the growth and development of the institution. He remembered her for her commitment to the cause of the students and her determination to provide quality education. He also thanked her for her inspiring leadership.

All the speakers have expressed deep gratitude towards her and took oath to carry forward institutional values to impart education to all the sections of society and special intentions should be given to vulnerable sections of society. They also pledged to provide quality education to all students and ensure that no one is left behind. They promised to strive for equal opportunities for all and to create an environment of peace and harmony. Finally, they promised to work hard for a brighter future.
