(Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav-Rangoli Competition)

Introduction

As per the directives of the Government of India to celebrate the glory of 75 years of Independence of India, Higher education are instructed to celebrate the whole week as Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav. Under Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav various Programs were organised by our college, one of which was to Portray India's Independence through Rangoli. The broader Topic was provided "Swatantrata ka Amrit Mahotsav". The young minds can put their own creativity to portray the culture, prosperity, diversity, sacrifices of freedom fighters, scientific and agricultural development of our country through their Rangolies.

Objectives

1. To celebrate the glorious 75 years of Independence of India to the National level.
2. To observe young minds portraying India.
3. To build competitiveness, and sportsmanship skills through organizing various competitions.

The Assessment mechanism

Students would be judged purely based on their creativity in portraying India. To judge their creativity, Two judges were appointed, one being internal. Mr. Pranit Bhoir and Advoc. Devika Gawand has judged the rangoli competition and has helped with the timely announcement of the same.
