About the programme:

A workshop was organized at Annasaheb Vartak College on 25th July 2023 in collaboration with the Department of Hindi, Department of Political Science, and Department of History. The workshop has been organized on 'Participation of Tribal Heroes in the Struggle for Independence' on the occasion of Amrit

Mahotsav of Independence. The programme was dignified with the presence of our Chief Guest Dr. Rita Malache, Principal Dr. Arvind Ubale, Vice – Principal Dr. Anilkumar Shelke. Other faculty members present were Dr. Sakaharam Dakhore, Dr. Deepak Valvi, Mr. Sudhir Saindane, Mr. Sumit Vengurlekar. The programme was inaugurated by Ms. Prajakta Patil. Firstly the Principal of the College was asked to share his thoughts on the topic. Dr. Arvind Ubale in his speech expressed his happiness after seeing such a huge crowd of students for the workshop. He congratulated the students and explained how important it is for the present generation to understand the struggle tribal leaders have undergone for Independence. After the oration of the Principal, Dr. Rita Malache was introduced by Ms. Latika Patil. Dr. Rita Malache in her speech articulated to the students about the fact that all the communities have participated in the struggle for Independence and atleast 50 tribal leaders have contributed to the freedom struggle but it is a tragedy that we know nothing about those leaders except one or two names. She then advised the students to find about such unrecognized leaders and to learn from their lives. She guided the students on the various career opportunities available to students in the humanities. The programme ended by a vote of thanks by Ms. Vaikhari Navele.

Purpose:

The main aim of this workshop was to make the students realize about the contributions of the Tribal leaders in the freedom struggle. To learn from their lives and to make them their role models was the intention of the programme.

Outcome:

The students were made aware about the sacrifice and contribution of the tribal leaders. They were also advised about the various career opportunities in the field of Humanities.
