A program on 'Yuva Samvad' was organized in AnnasahebVartak College of Vidyavardhini Educational Institution in Vasai on Wednesday 2nd August 2023 in association with Palghar Collector's Office. This program was a part of celebration of Revenue Week organized by State Government of Maharashtra. Revenue Week is being observed from 1st August to 7th August 2023 by the Revenue and Forest Department of Government of Maharashtra. As a part of this revenue week, Yuva Samvad activity was conducted in Vartak College in Vasai today and it received a great response from the college youth. VikasVartak, President of Vidyavardhini Educational Institution, Babansheth Naik, Vice President of Vidyavardhini, Hasmukhbhai Shah, Treasurer, Dr. Arvind Ubale, Principal of the college, as well as Vice-Principal of Degree and Junior College, teachers and non-teaching staff attended the program in large numbers. This program was hosted by Dr. Sriram Dongre. On behalf of the college, Dr. Shatrughan Phad successfully coordinated the program with the help of various committees.

During the program, Tehsildar of Vasai, Mr. Avinash Koshti explained to the students the procedure of revenue department and also guided them in obtaining various certificates and certificates. Aparna Somani, Deputy Officer ECI, described the procedure for voter registration and appealed to the students to register their names in the voter list. Palghar District Supply Officer, Popat Omase guided the students regarding the Civil Service Examinations for different government posts at various levels and also answered their doubts. He also explained the Do's and Dont's for preparing for any exam. He guided the students that it is also required for living a decent life. Palghar District Collector Mr. Govind Bodke guided the audience about the structure of revenue department, career opportunities in it. He also stated that Palghar district has about 115 kilometers of coastline and also announced that tree plantation activities will be undertaken at the government level along with the cooperation of various NGOs, schools and colleges over this coastline. The officials interacted with the students and also answered the queries of the students regarding various issues.

PURPOSE:

The main purpose of the programme was to spread awareness about the various competitive exams that are conducted and also how to start preparing for the same. The programme was also organized to explain the students about the procedure required for getting any government certificate.

OUTCOME:

The students were explained the DO's and DON'T's for preparing for Civil Service Examination. They were made to understand that these exams require a lot of preparation which the students who are in their graduation years can start counting from today. Students were also acknowledged that the government documents that took many procedures and days to complete will now be completed in just a click right in their homes.
